

David McKense asked that I send you this. Sorry, its late and misplaced regs.

Talented lads win audience

OPERA VIP'S . . . When the Columbus Boychoir presented a vaudeville for boys, "The Golden Vanity," Michael MacKay, left, played the part of captain of the ship, "Golden Vanity," Charles Zebley, center was captain of "Turkish Galilee," and Alfred Motsinger played the part of cabin boy. The vaudeville was a part of the concert given by the choir in Mount Vernon Thursday evening as another of Community Concert series. The opera was especially colorful.