CHRISTMAS CAROL ALBUM POPULAR

"Joy to the World," 12-inch album of best-loved Christmas carols recorded by the Columbus Boychoir last year, has sold thousands of copies in many parts of the world and is expected to exceed all previous Boychoir record sales during the next two months as its popularity mounts. The record is available in both regular ($3.98) and stereo ($4.98) editions from the school office, Box 350, Princeton, N. J. (plus 30¢ for mailing). A fine Christmas gift, it will be mailed to any address promptly upon receipt of order, or on a specified date. The record, which contains 21 selections, is a Decca release and carries the catalogue number DL-8920.

BOYCHOIR ON TELEPHONE HOUR

Bell Telephone Hour, outstanding musical program carried by the NBC-TV network, will feature the Columbus Boychoir of 50 voices on Friday, December 23rd, 9-10 p.m., live and in color, in a gala Christmas show originating in New York City.

In another important appearance, the choir will join the Bach Aria Group for the third time since 1958 in a Town Hall, New York, concert on Wednesday, January 11, 1961.

Also for the third time since 1958 a concert will be given at the Harvard Club, New York City, December 20th.

Management of the Columbus Boychoir is in the hands of Kenneth Allen, Kenallen En-
