BOYCHOIR may appear on the Bell Telephone Hour again this year, according to word recently received at the school. If made final, the appearance would be the second in consecutive years. The show, live and in color, is scheduled for December 22nd.

CAMP will open Sunday, June 25th, and close Sunday, August 6th. Campers should arrive sometime during the afternoon; the first meal served will be supper at 6 p.m. There are still a few places for additional campers. Inquiries should be addressed to Camp Director, Box 350, Princeton, N.J.; or telephone WALnut 4-5858.

THREE new teachers will join the faculty for the coming school year, which opens on September 11th. Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Wolfe of Stockton, N.J., will replace Mr. Frederick Royal and Mr. Arthur O'Hanlon, who have resigned after four years at the Boychoir School. Mr. Royal will teach at Oakwood School, Poughkeepsie, N.Y., and Mr. O'Hanlon at Friends Academy, Locust Valley, N.Y. A teacher for the 4th-5th grades to replace Mrs. John Fleck, who gave birth to a son on May 28th, has not yet been selected.

THE NEWSLETTER now bows out for the summer and looks forward to the beginning of another school year September 11th. Happy vacation to all!
