

Fall concert performances of the choir began with an appearance of the boys in Princeton on September 24th. The program was well received having been sponsored by the Princeton Bank & Trust Co. as part of its forum series entitled "Money & Music." 42 boys sang in this program. On October 26th, the boys presented a concert at Garden City, Long Island.

The Fall tour will begin in New Wilmington, Pa., and conclude in Dubois, Pa., Thursday, Dec. 14th. The schedule will take 27 boys, 4 adult singers, & 4 staff members, headed by Donald Bryant, musical director, to 20 states for 33 concerts.

Playing the part of Amahl will be four boys in rotation. They are Alan Tucker, Larry Baldwin, Douglas Kelner, and Tom Friedman. The role of Amahl's mother will be played again by Mary Evelyn Bruce of N.Y.C. The 3 kings will be played by Gerald Carpenter, Alan Olson, and Franklin Ehrhardt, all of N.Y.C.

Traveling with the boys will be two teachers, Mr. & Mrs. Donald Wolfe, who will conduct daily classes & supervise the off-stage activities of the boys. Mr. Harold Jones will be at the wheel of the Boychoir's own custom-built motor coach, the "Schoolhouse on Wheels."
