SINGING FOR THE JOY OF IT, the Boychoir's newest record, arrived at the school this Monday. The record was made by Decca and features spirituals and folk songs. It is now on sale at your local record shop or it may be purchased through the school. By making your purchase through the school you aid the scholarship fund since all profits from the sale of records serve this end. The cost is $3.98 for the monaural album and $4.98 for the stereo album. Please add an additional 30¢ for postage.

THE WORLD SERIES was enjoyed this week by excited Boychoir sports fans. The boys saw the Yankees emerge triumphant over the Reds through the courtesy of several staff members who gladly relinquished their sets to the boys or else joined them! (Unfortunately the set placed at the disposal of the boys has not been working recently.)

ASSEMBLY LAST THURSDAY was presided over by the Student Council for the first time. The Council will continue to officiate at Assemblies throughout the year. Michael O'Flaherty, president, read the devotions from the Gospel of John; James DeLoach presided over the program in general and introduced the film, "Comrade 'T'," produced by the United States Department of the Army. James Walker was the projectionist.

BIRTHDAYS OF KEITH RAPHAEL AND ANDERSON REEVES were celebrated on Friday and Tuesday, respectively. The two occasions were celebrated in the "old" (since 1937) Boychoir tradition: "Happy Birthday Song", birthday cake, and an equal number of swats applied at the proper point, courtesy, of course, by Mr. Rhine.

ASIDE FROM THE REGULAR GYM PERIOD at the Nassau Street School, two other activities were enjoyed by the boys Tuesday evening. A HARPSICHORD RECITAL by Madame Isabelle Nef, of Geneva, Switzerland, was presented at The Princeton Theological Seminary. Miss Nef has appeared as a soloist with symphonic orchestras and chamber groups in the major cities of Europe. At present she is currently engaged in an extensive concert tour of the United States. The boys particularly enjoyed Mozart's "Sonata in C Major". Boys attending the concert with Mrs. Wolfe and Mr. Haley were: Michael O'Flaherty, Rick Funk, Douglas Kelner, Craig Maus, Billy Johnson, John Kelsall, Mark Crosby, David Huggins, Nat Wordell, and Lester Erich. 3000 YEARS UNDER THE SEA, a film presented by Stanley Waterman, a resident of Princeton, was seen by a group of boys on the same night. The presentation was sponsored by the Princeton Kiwanis at the McCarter Theater. It is the film story of the Cochran Expedition to the Coast of Asia Minor. This was the first underwater archaeological expedition carried out along the Turkish Coast, which in ancient time was a main thoroughfare for the merchant fleets of the Aegean civilization. They explored treacherous
