Festival Association presents two talented artists in a concert.

Principles in the concert will be Ailsa Lawson, pianist and Bill Price, boy soloist and a member of the Columbus Boy-choir.

Miss Lawson, a former Flin Flon resident now living in Winnipeg is a medallist and diploma winner of considerable talent and won her ARTC piano diploma with the highest mark of 90.

She appeared twice with the CEC Winnipeg Orchestra on the national network and with the Winnipeg Symphony.

Bill Price is remembered for his singing in local Music Festivals before he was accepted as a member of the famous Columbus Boychoir. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Price of Flin Flon.
