

to write, especially when on tour.

It is surely a unique opportunity for education, not only in music but in travel as well.

We found the boys well-mannered, courteous, and thoughtful; a real joy to have around. They seemed to be enjoying themselves and are doing a fine job musically.

Cordially yours.

Harold Eastman.