

KERRY YACHES - In Lancaster we saw many familiar faces. We saw three boys who were in camp this past year. They were Joe Stuart, Bruce Oatney, and Steve Sneeringer. Other guests introduced were Mr. & Mrs. Bell, Stewart Bell's parents, and Mrs. Bryant, Mr. Bryant's mother.

JIM DELOACH - On Monday, March 5th, on our way to St. Louis, we stopped at Samuel Clemens's home in Hannibal, Mo. This was very interesting to me because the 8th grade had read and acted the Glorious Whitewasher in assembly. We found that the stories written by Samuel Clemens (Mark Twain) were actually his own childhood in exaggerated form. We saw his room and all of the house where Tom Sawyer lived. We also saw Becky Thatcher's home and the fence the boys whitewashed.

Newsletter Interview on Tour

MR. DONALD C. WOLFE was born in Easton, Pennsylvania. He went to school in Easton, Lafayette College, where he majored in journalism and English. Mr. Wolfe coached the freshman basketball team while in college. After graduating, he coached basketball, football, and tennis, basketball and football for five years and tennis for seventeen years. He also taught English and journalism in Perth Amboy High School until ten years ago. For six years he was an executive secretary. Later he taught sixth grade and then moved to Solebury School in Solebury, Penna. where he taught the Yale Math System. From there he came to the Boychoir School and now teaches Math and Science. His wife is also an English and reading teacher at the Boychoir School. They have a daughter, Barbara Jean, who is a woman's editor for the Trentonian, and a son, Bill, a senior at the Univ. of Colorado (a former Boychoir student). Mr. & Mrs. Wolfe own a ten acre farm near Stockton, New Jersey. - Stephen Bryant

SPRING TOUR ITINERARY

(second half)

Tuesday, April 3rd - Torrington, Conn. (bus will leave Princeton at 12:00 noon)
Concert - St. Paul's Lutheran Church
Contact - Rev. Norman E. Sutterlin - 112 S. Main St.
Overnight - Private homes

Wednesday, April 4th - to be arranged

Thursday, April 5th - Fredericton, N.B.
Concert - none
Overnight - to be arranged

Friday, April 6th - Charlottetown, P.E.I.
Concert - Prince of Wales College
Contact - Mr. J. Anderson, 1 Grafton St.
Overnight - The Charlottetown

Saturday, April 7th - to be arranged

Sunday, April 8th - Yarmouth, N.S.
Concert - none
Overnight - The Grand Hotel