IMPROVEMENTS undertaken this summer include the grading and seeding of a new play-field which will give us a 100'x 300' field plus a baseball diamond; resurfacing of the tennis court; painting of lower dorm rooms in the Main House; painting of the Cottage dorm. redecoration of the infirmary; new room for the school library; purchase of a twelve passenger International "Travel All"; and a student recreation room yet to be completed. The front of our main building, beautiful "Albemarle", has a fresh coat of paint.

REHEARSALS for the performance with Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic will begin this Saturday afternoon and continue through the next week. Everyday next week will find us in New York for one or more rehearsal with the exception of Thursday. On Friday, we will all move - students and staff - to the Empire Hotel (Broadway at 63rd Street, New York 23, N.Y.) and return to Princeton after a day of sightseeing on
