HALLOWEEN PARTY last Friday night was a huge success. The Spook House was better than it ever had been, the refreshments were tops, and the games were lots of fun. At the end of the party we sang the "Echo Song" and "Goodnight Ladies" for the girls. After the girls went home we stayed awake and talked and laughed till eleven o'clock. - Mark Crosby

THANK YOU is certainly in order for Mrs. Bryant and her host of mothers and dads who went all out on the Halloween Party. Refreshments were served to over 235 people! You can well imagine the festivity of the evening. The games run by the parents and friends of the School were fun, we had refreshments to last all weekend!, and a big job cleaning up. Overheard - "Boy, I can't wait till next year!"

SNOW - Friday was an unusual day in the vicinity of Princeton. It was only October 26th and we had a small snow storm. When we woke up on Friday morning we saw the snow on the ground and everyone started to clap. Then to add to the clapping all the lights went out and there was a roar in the cormitories. When we went down to eat all the candles on the chandelier were lit and there were candles on the tables. Our first two and a half periods of class were dark but then in the middle of the third period the lights went back on. The fun was over but everybody was glad to have the lights back on. - Paul Sutterlin

STEVE RICE entered the hospital last Wednesday evening and was operated on the next evening. He ran into a door and fractured a rib. He is expected back next week. Good luck, Steve! - Steve Grunder
